

The Town of Buchanan is centrally located 24 miles between Roanoke and Lexington, and just 20 miles from Bedford. Buchanan is surrounded by beautiful countryside as well as National Forests making it an idea destination for those who enjoy outdoor adventure with easy access to more urban areas.

The Town may be reached from Interstate 81 at exits 162 & 168. From the Blue Ridge Parkway the Town may be reached by taking Route 43 at Milepost 90.9.

Meeting Spaces

- Historic Wilson Warehouse/Community House - \(540\) 597-2399
- Buchanan Library - \(540\) 254-1117
- Bank Of Botetourt Operations Center - \(540\) 254-1721
- Botetourt Resource Center - \(540\) 254-1468

The Buchanan Rail Car Inn

A vintage 1934 Hiawatha Dining Car (later converted to an exclusive railcar) houses this one-of-a-kind inn, located in Buchanan. The car is richly appointed with fine furnishings and inlaid woods shined to a soft patina and harkens to an era when a journey was more than just a means to get from...

Read More

The Overlook

Lovely renovated two-story home with 5 bedrooms (4 upstairs and master bedroom downstairs) and 2 full bathrooms. Stunning views and roomy screened-in back porch with ceiling fans and 2 tables with plenty of extra seating to enjoy the view. Spacious living room with brick fireplace and raised...

Read More

The Squirrels Nest

The Squirrels Nest is a quaint, historic log cabin overlooking the James River in Buchanan, Virginia. The home originally set high upon the Blue Ridge Mountains and during construction of the Blue Ridge Parkway was moved to its current location on First Street in the heart of the community. The...

Read More

View PDF